

Dear, Obama

My name is Janaisa Thomas and am twelve years old. I would like to tell you that I want to change domestic violence so that a lot of people don't get hurt over crazy thing that could have been avoided by just making the right choice. It could change by everyone being peaceful and not hurting the Earth and fighting and cursing at each other. It could also change by men not hitting women and being peaceful.
